

The largest Cheese Show in the World, took place at Dorfold Park, Nantwich, Cheshire on the 28th and 29th July 2009. A record number of entries competed in 2008 with 2,655 from 24 countries taking part.

This years Nantwich International Cheese Awards has recognised 2 Guernsey milk producers by giving their products award winning status.

Fenella Maddison, who has written our Cheese Makers Tales articles, won Silver with her Fort Grey blue cheese. This is her first year of producing cheese under the title of

Torteval

. She won the silver award in the section of single soft or cream cheese-blue veined. We would like to congratulate her and we look forward to seeing more of her achievements.

Also Tiresford Guernsey Gold came away with spectacular results taking 2 Golds, a Bronze

plus a Trophy

award. They took

Gold for their Cherry flavour and

Bronze

in the section for single carton of fruit/flavoured yoghurt made with cows milk. Gold for single carton of Natural yoghurt made with cows milk. Then they topped off this trio of awards by taking

The Clawson Salver

for the Best yoghurt in Show also with the Cherry.
